Dear Mr. Braestrup:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the two articles on Turkey which will be appearing in the November issue of the Wilson Quarterly. However, due to my present position with the federal government, I feel it is necessary to decline.

Dr. Henry Rowan Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Dr. Rowan:

At the suggestion of several Wilson Center Fellows, I send to you for comment a preprint of two articles on Turkey which will appear in the November 1982 issue of the Wilson Quarterly.

What we would very much like from you is a brief (150-300 word) written comment, supplying a fresh viewpoint or a contrary argument. We know that we cannot cover completely all perspectives on a complex subject in a single essay; we better serve our readers by following up with informed commentary.

Our deadline is October 22 for publication in our January 1983 issue.

At this point we have some 100,000 subscribers—largely public officials, academics, professionals, and newsmen. But it is too early to know if we are rich or poor. We can offer, in return for your letter, a free subscription to the WQ, and our thanks.

ery traly yours,

Peter Braestrup

Editor
